

Please maintain the current FCC ownership rules. Democracy is only served by a diverse and open media. Even as things stand now many, many Americans mistrust the news they hear on our tv news, realizing that what is reported to us is filtered through the government and/or through private/corporate interests. Don't make it worse. In fact, this should not be a decision made by a single person, but should be decided by the American public.